BARRANDOV STUDIO GUIDED TOURS

- For Barrandov Studio guided tours, it is always necessary to book in advance.
- Tours can be arranged on weekdays, Monday to Friday, 10 am - 4 pm.
- For operational reasons, the maximum group size is 30 people (including the escort). In case of greater interest, we can split visitors into two smaller groups and assign each group its own guide.
- Tours are conducted in Czech or English. For other languages, the group can bring their own interpreter (neither the interpreter nor the agency representative pays the entrance fee).
- No later than on the day of the tour, the group representative will deliver the guide a list of the participants, confirming at the same time that they have been informed of the Guidelines for Visitors to the exhibition space of Barrandov Studio, and the Guidelines for visitors and excursions in the premises of Barrandov Studio (the Guidelines will be attached to the e-mail reminding the ordering party of the binding reservation a few days before the event; the Guidelines are also listed below.)
- The entrance fee is payable on the day of the tour, before the tour starts, in Czech crowns. Payment is possible only in cash.
- Taking photographs is possible unless the guide notifies an exceptional ban.
- These are group guided tours. It is necessary that participants stick together in a group, move along the tour route only when accompanied by the guide and follow his/her instructions. Otherwise, the group risks its members' safety and can disrupt traffic. Therefore, the guide is entitled to end the tour early, without possibility to claim any financial or other compensation.

The tour has a fixed schedule and length. It begins at the exhibition space by introduction to the history and present of the Barrandov studios. Next, visitors have a chance to see the original costumes and props from famous Barrandov films displayed here.

The tour continues with a walk around the film studios with an explanation of their history and the projects currently being prepared.

Because the studios are rented and filming may be taking place inside at the time of the tour, we do not guarantee that it will be possible to visit sound stages itself and their facilities. It happens that individual soundstages will be seen only from the outside, but the guide will stop briefly in front of each building and introduce its functions.

The total time of the tour for public is about 1 hour, for groups 1 hour 30 minutes.
